

Live and laugh

Springman middle

I recently read a poem that's called live with laughter and it gave me an inspirational tip. It said

"Laughter makes our day better

Laughter makes our life worth living

Nothing can make you feel better rather than laughter

So make someone laugh

make yourself laugh

and live life with laughter"

By lexi bowsman

The reason I loved this poem is because it helped me get through hard times.

When my grandpa died for a while all I did was just cry in my room, and I hadn't felt laughter

In a very long time. A few days later my mom walked into my room and sat

On the edge of my bed. For a while she just sat in silence.

But then she showed me this poem and I started to think a lot.

This influenced my personality by making me go above and beyond to laugh a little more everyday.

This poem made me feel a lot better. I remember all the great laughs I had with my grandpa and all the things we did together. He always put a smile on my face even when I was feeling down.

lexi bowsman's poem live with laughter, truly did inspire me to be happier. I want to inspire some one some day like she did to me. Ever since I read her poem I thought you only have so long with the people you love and what better way to spend it then laughing. Living life with laughter makes life worth living.
